WE HOPE YOU WERE INSPIRED BY THE GUEST SPEAKERS

Jessica Correa ~ Random Acts of Green

Tom Marcantonio ~ Urban Farming Activist

Jake Miller ~ Project Neutral

Lindsay Coulter ~ David Suzuki Foundation

JESSICA CORREA ~ RANDOM ACTS OF GREEN

Jessica Correa is the face of a new green community movement, and an expert in sustainability, environmental education and mindful lifestyle eco-choices.

As founder and CEO of Random Acts of Green, Inc. (RAOG), Jessica works to raise public awareness about how to take climate action. Individuals, businesses, schools, and communities can all participate in climate action through social media.

JAKE MILLER ~ PROJECT NEUTRAL

Jake sees opportunity in using technology to help serve the common good. Project Neutral's mission is to transform Canadians' climate concern into action and mobilize a new community of climate leaders.

Through an innovative carbon-benchmarking platform, Project Neutral helps people measure their household climate impact and inspires them to take action – both by reducing their greenhouse gas emissions and becoming climate role models in their communities.

TOM MARCANTONIO ~ URBAN FARMING ACTIVIST

Tom Marcantonio has over 40 years' experience growing food crops in the Ottawa area. He immigrated to Canada in 1954 from a rural, Italian, agricultural village and grew organic food for our traditional diet, medicine and for barter.

Tom's vision is that Ottawa grows 50% of our food by 2050, improving health, community spirit and economy; and that anyone who wishes to grow food can access a minimum of 200 sq. feet of growing space within a 15-minute walk/5 minute bike ride.

AND WE HOPE YOU ENJOYED THE LIVE ACTS

Kimberly Sunstrum ~ Live performance

Moov Ottawa ~ Dance lesson

JFUN ~ Dance Party!

KIMBERLY SUNSTRUM

Kimberly Sunstrum is a heart-warming performer. Her song writing is deep, evocative, and powerful. It's an inspired blend of the grooves she listened to growing up in Sub-Saharan Africa and Canada.

She strings together sounds from South African pop hits, classic R&B, old-time country and 70's Motown and spins them all together in to her own unique melodies.
